THE NEW MUSICAL IN TOWN!

Can you handle even more singing and dancing? Of course you can! The American Mall premieres on MTV on August 11th (8pm ET/PT) and trust Popstar!—it'll get you in the mood for a little moving, grooving and shopping!

"With Nina, we just clicked from the first day when I first met her at the audition!"
—Rob Mayes

LOVE ON-SCREEN!

Nina Dobrek, who plays main character Ally Shepherd, can't stop raving about all her castmates—especially her love interest in the movie, played by Rob Mayes. "Rob is incredible," Nina spills. "He's such a beautiful singer and that guy can dance! And he's great to get along with!"

THE COOL LUNCH TABLE!

This cast had zero problems bonding while filming! "Our cast is eclectic," Rob Mayes laughs. "It's really a group of very differing personalities, but we all mesh so well. As far as the band is concerned, I couldn't have asked for better bandmates. Our dynamic is killer!"

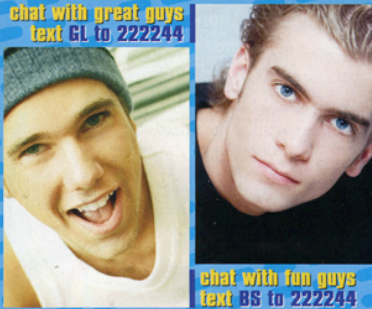

BELT IT OUT!

Yikes! She looks upset! Autumn Reeser, who plays mean girl Madison in the movie (but is supersweet in real life!), weighs in on why she thinks musicals have made such a big comeback! "I think they've always been popular, but they just went away," Autumn tells Popstar! "I think the industry just stopped making them and High School Musical really realized how huge musicals are for the teen population."
