I've been obsessed with dogs my whole life," says Entourage's Autumn Reeser, who shot to fame on The O.C. and this fall will star on ABC's new comedy, No Ordinary Family. The actress, who admits to spoiling her pups — Gatsby, a 6-year-old papillon, and Sadie, a mixed-breed puppy she recently rescued — with lavish birthday parties and expensive chew toys, says she even once moved houses in order to be in a more "dog-friendly" environment for her four-legged best friends. "It's an unconditional love," says the busy actress and recent bride (she married Jesse Warren just over a year ago) of her dogs. "They make me laugh and bring joy into my life. It's wonderful." With her jam-packed shooting schedule, Autumn is glad her dogs have each other to play with when she's not around, and says she can't wait to expand her own entourage: "We're definitely getting another one!"
